Customer Reviews

Hotness overload! And to think that there are several more books here! Am I so overwhelmed! It is so amusing that there is a book set like this one. Some amazingly hot stories for the price of one is too much to handle for me. And I also enjoyed each of the stories. Making such a captivating book could only be a work for a very imaginative mind. I am not much into this genre but I think this book has given justice to lesbian romances now.

Great story for this series, loved Michael who was patient, loving, thoughtful and generous. Even though Ryan had things to through he found the courage in the end to accept that he was lovable. As Michael stated it doesn't matter what you did in the past its where you are now and going that defines you, being true to yourself and being surrounded by true friends will get you through the hard times in life.

This book is awesomeâ ¡.Sarah did a great job in creating such great book! Every page is pure bliss as it takes readers into a world of lust and love. She made surely that every page is worth every seconds of your reading time. She masterfully crafts every scene to bring out the emotions of every character and that only shows the level of artistry she has with her storytelling.

This is such a seriously hot lesbian erotica which you would doubtlessly love to peruse. The characters are overwhelmingly attractive and appealing, and they surely have a decent science with each other.The author has successfully presented all the character. Recommended.

Too hot lesbian story that I am pretty sure you would satisfied with every twists on the story. Hot romances began when Angela is home all alone. She's getting ready to study for a major test that's coming up. Waiting on her study partner she goes to her closet to get a sweatshirt because she's chilly. Find out what comes next. I am pretty sure it would made you a page turner.

I was curious about whether a lesbian romance is good or not, so I tried reading this. And I was actually quite surprised since it was pretty romantic and sexy. This was an interesting read for a straight woman like me. This has broadened my interest when it comes to love stories so I am so glad that I decided to read this book. I think I'll try to check out this author's other works.
